

ELEVATE

MOVING PEOPLE AND ORGANIZATIONS
FROM PLATEAU TO POTENTIAL

THE ELEVATE KEYNOTE WORKSHOP

Does running your business get in the way of building your business?

Do you find your business delivering inconsistent results year in and year out?

According to a Harvard Business Review study, 75% of organizations struggle to execute their plans. The gap that frustrates leaders the most is the one between "knowing" what to do and actually "doing" it.

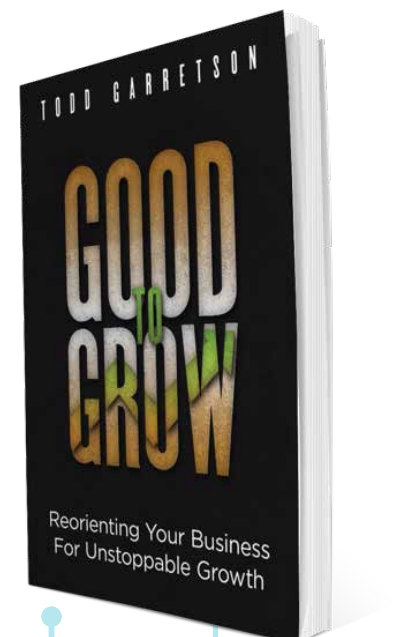

Finally, there's a way to get unstuck! Join us for an inspirational and interactive workshop that will have your team and business primed for it's best year yet!

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

- ✍ Learn the 6 major building blocks of high performing teams and organizations and discover how to bring them to life.
- ✍ Uncover a must-have business formula and assessment tool for any leader responsible for delivering better results.
- ✍ Discover the most critical pipeline in your business (it's not what you think!), and how to make it work for you, not against you.

ADVISOR, SPEAKER AND AUTHOR

Todd Garretson has a passion for helping organizations unlock dormant growth potential in people, teams and organizations. Todd has spent 20-plus years in a number of corporate leadership roles, in addition to advising both family-owned and privately-held organizations of all sizes. A growth strategist at heart, Todd specializes in building high-performance organizations and helping owners and executives with strategic growth development. You can find Todd at the intersection of the architect and the builder, with the unique skill to both envision it and make it come to life.

“Wow! What a workshop! The material you shared was tremendously insightful, the tactical tools for building businesses and people will be a game changer for my team, and the distinction you make between culture and strategy was invaluable.”
